Mumbai MUN POSH Policy

This POSH (Prevention of Sexual Harassment) Policy applies to every individual involved in Mumbai MUN, whether participating, organising, or performing any task on a regular, temporary, or ad hoc basis, either directly or through an agent.

Definition of Sexual Harassment

"Sexual Harassment" includes but is not limited to the following unwelcome acts or behaviour, whether expressed directly or indirectly:

- Physical contact or advances, such as pinching, patting, rubbing, or purposeful brushing against another person.
- Staring in a sexually suggestive or offensive manner or whistling.
- Requests or demands for sexual favours.
- Derogatory comments, slurs, or jokes of a sexual nature; verbal sexual advances or propositions; graphic remarks about an individual's body; or sexually degrading language.
- Sexual gestures or displays of sexually suggestive objects, pictures, cartoons, posters, calendars, computer screens, or pornography.
- Questions about a person's sexual history or sexual orientation.
- Unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.
- Sending suggestive or obscene letters, notes, messages, or chats.
- Any conduct deemed inappropriate by the POSH Presiding Committee or under applicable law.

Additionally, certain circumstances in relation to acts or behaviours of sexual harassment can also constitute Sexual Harassment:

- Promises of preferential treatment during the conference.
- Threats of negative treatment during the conference.
- Actions or words that interfere with a person's work or create an intimidating, offensive, or uncomfortable environment.
- Humiliating treatment that could impact an individual's health or safety.
